INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE and POLICY

The Sub-Fund aims to provide long-term investment growth through systematic (i.e., rules-based) exposure to a diversified portfolio of global equities and equity-related securities. The Sub-Fund will seek to achieve its investment objective by investing primarily, i.e., at least 50% of its Net Asset Value, in equities and equity related securities, including but not limited to, warrants, common shares, rights issues and depositary receipts (American Depositary Receipts (ADRs) and Global Depositary Receipts (GDRs)), of companies worldwide using systematic investing, a rules-based approach, to selecting investments. Such approach includes the use of unstructured data sources (such as mobile application usage, geolocation data, or online consumer behaviour) to determine the relative attractiveness of companies.

The Sub-Fund described herein is indexed to an MSCI index.

This indicator is based on historical data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Sub-Fund. The risk and reward category shown is not guaranteed and may change over time. The lowest category does not mean a risk free investment. The Sub-Fund is rated 5 due to the nature of its investments which include the risks listed below. These factors may impact the value of the Sub-Fund's investments or expose the Sub-Fund to losses.

MAIN RISKS

Currency Risk The Sub-Fund invests in other currencies. Changes in exchange rates will therefore affect the value of the investment.

Emerging Markets Risk Emerging markets or less developed countries may face more economic, political or structural challenges than developed countries. This may mean your money is at greater risk. Other factors include greater 'Liquidity Risk', restrictions on investment or transfer of assets and failed/delayed delivery of securities or payments to the Sub-Fund.

Equity Risk The value of equities and equity-related securities can be affected by daily stock market movements. Other influential factors include political, economic news, company earnings and significant corporate events.

COMMENTARY

Global equities ended 2025 strongly, with the MSCI World Index up 2% in December, closing near all-time highs. Although risk sentiment stayed supportive, late month trading revealed lingering concerns around elevated valuations, earnings concentration, and capital spending discipline.

Technology leadership cooled into year end. Large cap Information Technology (IT), after driving returns for much of 2025, saw more muted performance, while speculative artificial intelligence (AI) linked names such as Oracle Corporation ("Oracle") and Super Micro Computer, Inc. ("Super Micro") fell sharply (over -30% in Q4), reflecting growing investor unease over record capital expenditures and uncertain future returns. Conversely, market leadership broadened meaningfully in December following the Federal Reserve (Fed)'s two rate cuts in Q4 2025. Financials were key beneficiaries, supported by easing credit conditions and a re steepening yield curve. International markets also continued to outperform the U.S., led by Japan and parts of Europe, where capital flows rotated toward less concentrated markets with improving policy backdrops (e.g., fiscal support in Europe, ongoing reform in Japan).

The AIA Global Systematic Equity Fund returned 2.83% for the month, outperforming its benchmark (MSCI World Value Index) by 1.13%, supported by contributions from Utilities, Materials, and Energy. In contrast, Real Estate, Communication Services, and Consumer Staples lagged. At the country level, the U.S. was the largest contributor, followed by France and Japan. Meanwhile, Canada and Spain detracted, due to both weaker allocation and stock selection.

From a security selection standpoint, the Fund's overweight positions in Freeport McMoRan Inc. ("Freeport McMoRan") and Comcast Corporation ("Comcast") added value. Freeport McMoRan was driven by bullish copper market fundamentals and a wave of analyst price target upgrades. Comcast's gains followed activist investor buzz as well as news about its successful network expansion. Conversely, overweight positions in 3M Company ("3M") and AT&T Inc. ("AT&T") detracted.

Please refer to the offering documents (including, but not limited to the current Prospectus and the KIID) of AIAIF for details on fees and charges, dealing & redemption, product features, risk factors and seek professional advice before making any investment decision. The value of shares in any sub-fund of AIAIF and the income accruing to the shares, if any, may fall or rise. Where an investment is denominated in a currency other than the base currency of a sub-fund of AIAIF, exchange rates may have an adverse effect on the value price or income of that investment. Investors should not make any investment decision solely based on this document. In the event that an investor may choose not to seek advice from a financial adviser, the latter should consider carefully whether an investment into a sub-fund of AIAIF in question is suitable for him.

Past performance and the predictions, projections, or forecasts on the economy, securities markets or the economic trends of the markets are not necessarily indicative of the future or likely performance of the AIAIF.

Any sub-fund of AIAIF may use derivative instruments for efficient portfolio management and hedging purposes.

This paragraph is only applicable to the distribution share classes of AIAIF. AIAIF may, at its discretion, determine how the earnings of distribution share classes shall be distributed and may declare distributions from time to time. When AIAIF decides to pay dividends in respect of a distributing share class out of the capital of the sub-fund of AIAIF or where the dividends in respect of a distributing share class are paid out of gross income of the sub-fund of AIAIF, while the sub-fund of AIAIF's fees and expenses are charged to or paid out of the capital of the sub-fund of AIAIF, resulting in an increase in distributable income for the payment of dividends by the sub-fund of AIAIF, such payment of dividends may, in the light of the rules applicable in the jurisdictions where the sub-fund of AIAIF is registered for public distribution, be considered as a payment of dividends out of and effectively out of capital respectively, both of which would amount to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor's original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investment. The distributions, including amounts and frequency, are not guaranteed and are subject to the discretion of AIAIF. Past dividends are not a forecast or projection of future distributions.
